OVERVIEW

Capella Hanoi is dreamt up by illustrious architect, Bill Bensley, to be an Petite Auberge during opera’s halcyon days. Just mere steps away from the iconic Hanoi Opera House, this coveted palace of revelry is, what could have been, the rendezvous spot for opera’s greatest artists, singers, composers, stage and costume designers after the final curtain call. Within the characteristic 47-room hotel are thematic suites surprising discerning discoverers with a potpourri of original memorabilia salvaged from the glorious era, a romantic view of Hoan Kiem, epicurean choices by culinary craftsmen and curation of Daily Rituals and Programming revealing Hanoi’s treasures.

LOCATION

Leave the present behind and discover a world of spellbinding elegance. Capella Hanoi nestles on a peaceful boulevard along Hoàn Kiêm Lake, in the city’s French-influenced Old Quarter, ushering in a new era of art and elegance in the heart of Vietnam’s vibrant capital. Just steps away from famous spectacles: Hanoi Opera House, Hoan Kiem Lake and Old Quarter, travellers can always be on hand to unearth the real essence of the city and unveil the intricacies of Vietnam’s rich culture.

ACCOMMODATION

Paying tribute to legendary performances, actors and designers, all 47 suites of Capella Hanoi are individually-styled with historical opera ornaments and portraiture art by Kate Spencer. The top floor is anchored by 4 Opera Suites, each fitted with a spacious alfresco terrace boasting a breathtaking view of luscious greenery.

CULINARY EXPERIENCE

The Hudson Rooms: Rewind to New York 1920s- the golden age of opulence and charm

At The Hudson Rooms, every present moment is an opportunity to revisit past expressions of craft and artistry in the 1920’s- the golden age of glamour through art décor sophistication inspired by the famous Grand station. Guided by an innovative sense of curation and a taste for exploration, The Hudson Rooms transforms the seemingly ordinary into delightful journeys for guests. Be ready to immerse in the explosive flavour of unprecedented oysters and whiskey pairing at Oysters and Whiskey bar or savour intimate conversations over elevated Bistro style with utterly upscale Caviar appetizers. Every occasion at The Hudson Rooms is a playful toast to the legacy and electric atmosphere of New York City in the 1920s.

The Hudson Rooms invites guests to indulge in top-class mixology while being mesmerized by the amazing sunset in Hanoi in the dusk and dawn times before immersing in the signature daily rituals and menus and stepping on the red carpet rolled out to travel back in time. Welcome to the roaring 20s!
