Shanghai, 3 July 2017 - Internationally celebrated, multi-Michelin-starred French chef Pierre Gagnaire will debut his first culinary concept for Mainland China on 15 July 2017 in the restored shikumen estate, Capella Shanghai, Jian Ye Li. Gagnaire, one of the world's most lauded chefs, has earned merits that include 17 Michelin stars and the title of "Best Chef in the World 2015" as conferred by Le Chef magazine. At the heart of the cultural preservation zone of Xuhui District, the 70-seat restaurant le Comptoir de Pierre Gagnaire is open for breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea and dinner to serve Gagnaire's signature brand of French cuisine.

In addition to le Comptoir de Pierre Gagnaire, Capella Shanghai, Jian Ye Li will host the entirety of Gagnaire's first Mainland China venture: le Bar, a 40-seater intimate bar lounge, la Boulangerie et Patisserie, an informal yet relaxed café serving homemade pastries and confectionary located within The Gallery, and The Lab, an interactive showcase for private bookings of up to eight guests where the chef and guests can enjoy a lively exchange of culinary display. All Capella Shanghai's guests will be privy to in-room dining service fully curated by Gagnaire's team.

In keeping with Capella's commitment to cultural heritage, Gagnaire's first concept for Mainland China is rooted in family heritage. Gagnaire has appointed his long-time protégé
