THE KNOLLS REINVIGORATES MENU

Capella Singapore's coveted dining destination unveils menus designed by new Chef de Cuisine, featuring Mediterranean-inspired dishes as well as regional favourites

Roasted Seabass

(Singapore) Committed to leisurely indulgence, and boasting sweeping views out to the South China Sea, Capella Singapore's signature restaurant, The Knolls, has introduced a new menu, inspired by flavours and ingredients from the Mediterranean, with a particular focus on Spain, France, and Italy. The inviting, social destination features indoor and outdoor seating options, with direct access to the hotel's picturesque cascading pools, herb garden, and surrounding greenery.

Having refined his expertise working in some of the world's most celebrated kitchens, Chef Ignacio Moreno has overhauled the menu at the coveted all-day restaurant. A keen traveller, Chef Ignacio has injected new flavours and more varied cooking styles to the menu at The Knolls; "As Chef de Cuisine at The Knolls, I hope to fuse my European heritage with my extensive travels throughout Asia to invigorate the offerings and provide an unparalleled dining experience to guests of Capella Singapore. Spain, the South of France, Italy and Greece were some of the key areas I drew inspiration from, as well as including some regional favourites.”

Available from 12-3pm, the lunch menu at The Knolls includes a Power Lunch option. Priced at SGD $42 for two courses and SGD $52 for three courses, the lunch set menu includes gluten-free and vegetarian dishes, such as Quinoa Tabbouleh, pomegranate dressing, freshly chopped herb, tomato, onion, puffed crispy buckwheat, as well as traditional favourites such as the Capella Club, crispy bacon, fried egg, cheddar, avocado, tomato, romaine on toasted pain de mie.

Highlights of the new dinner menu include Burratina, fresh creamy mozzarella, roasted eggplant, capers, tomato, holy basil, Roasted Seabass, tender peas and beans, black garlic, citrus bisque, Slow Cooked Iberico Pork, romesco, confit leek, ratatouille, and Hazelnut and Apricot Gâteau, Greek yogurt sorbet, mint. A separate Regional Favourites menu includes locally-inspired dishes, such as Hainanese Chicken Rice, chicken breast or drumstick, fragrant rice, rice chicken broth, and Our Singapore Laksa, rice noodle, prawn, chicken, quail egg, fish cake, fragrant laksa coconut broth.

With lunch, dinner, and Sunday Brunch menus, including tantalising combinations of Western, Japanese, Indian and local flavours, The Knolls has made a name for itself as one of Singapore’s hottest dining destinations. Designed by Yasuhiro Koichi, Co-Founder of Tokyo-based DESIGN STUDIO SPIN, and inspired by the fusion of Capella Singapore’s classic, yet modern design, The Knolls integrates antique and contemporary elements to create a stylish, yet welcoming, space.

ABOUT CAPELLA SINGAPORE

Combining old-world colonial charm with contemporary chic, Capella Singapore is located in two restored Tanah Merah colonial bungalows, which date back to the 1880's. Inspired by Tanah Merah's Malay translation red earth, architects Foster + Partners designed the resort to sit in harmony with surrounding nature. Throughout the last decade, Capella Singapore has cemented itself as one of the most luxurious hotels in the region, having welcomed thousands of visitors to its coveted spot on Sentosa island.

Capella Singapore offers some of the most spacious accommodation options in Singapore – the 112 guestrooms include two Colonial Manors, complete with private plunge pools and outdoor bathtubs. Capella Singapore also offers the opportunity for extended stays with full access to the hotel's facilities via The Club Residences at Capella Singapore. These long stay offerings include 72 sea-facing suites and duplexes and 9 manors with private pools.
