The stunning island destination is an envy-inducing location for the most sophisticated brides & grooms

(Singapore, June 2019) Capella Singapore has cemented itself as one of the most luxurious hotels in the region. The coveted island destination has an abundance of experience planning unforgettable weddings with a multitude of indoor and outdoor venues and a dedicated wedding planner to assist with every detail.

Previously a florist to the celebrities in Los Angeles, Dora Wong is on hand to guide all brides and grooms-to be through their wedding planning creative process, channeling her natural aesthetical flair and high attention to detail to ensure a seamless experience. Floral displays are all exquisitely designed by the dedicated Creative Style Director, who arranges private consultations to determine the unique style requirements of each couple, creating contemporary showcases, inspired by the abundant natural surroundings of Capella Singapore.

Adding a unique edge to celebrations, couples can elect to offer personalised “His and Hers” cocktails to their guests, with tipples curated by the Head Bartender to reflect the personality of the Bride and Groom, be it light and fizzy, or 'Dark & Stormy' ... Injecting a tropical twist, a Cuban Rum Bar pop-up can also be arranged, with a selection of rum-based cocktails and optional cigars. Gin and Whisky Bars, with a range of house and premium bottles, are also on offer, as is a Havana BBQ Night Party Package. Excelling beyond the typical wedding offerings, a range of culinary options, including Western and Chinese set menus, inspired by fine-dining Cantonese restaurant, Cassia, are available, with highlights including Hong Kong-style Steamed Star Garoupa, Espelette Marinated Tuna Tataki, and Lamb Loin in Herbal Crust.

Set against the magnificent backdrop of the South China Sea, the property combines old-world colonial charm with contemporary chic; inspired by Tanah Merah's Malay translation red earth, architects Foster + Partners designed the resort to sit in harmony with surrounding nature. Wedding venues include the Sentosa Room, which embraces the outdoors with floor to ceiling windows. The room looks onto magnificent vistas of the South China Sea and lush tropical gardens. Catering to more intimate celebrations, the Sentosa Room is able to accommodate up to 180 guests. For larger parties, the Grand Ballroom, which can accommodate up to 400 guests, is a remarkable space sitting beneath a dazzling glass art piece by American Artist, Nikolas Weinstein. Set underneath a dome, the intricate glass tubes enables natural daylight to flood the space, creating a unique ambience in Singapore's only circular ballroom. An impressive floor to ceiling video wall lines the walls of the ballroom, allowing guests to showcase memories from their relationship, or to stream a range of stunning backdrops to add a new dimension to the occasion.

Depending on the size of the celebration, a range of wedding experiences are on offer; all packages in the Grand Ballroom include use of the Gallery or The Portico as a solemnization venue, exclusive use of the Capella Singapore Alcove, Bliss Room for brides, and a wedding gift for each guest. Solemnization options include Poolside Bliss, whereby couples can tie the knot beside the resort's iconic cascading pools; Garden of Dreams, amidst the tropical greenery of the estate, with the conservation-listed colonial buildings as the backdrop; and Horizon's Verge, on the property's breezy patio, overlooking the South China Sea.
