

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A SIP OF BURGUNDY AT ITS BEST BY DOMAINE PRIEURE ROCH

Capella Ubud, Bali is hosting Yannick Champ from Domaine Prieure Roch for two exclusive wine events at its signature restaurants presenting the finest Burgundy collection in an unrivalled rainforest setting.

Produced in the communes of Nuits-Saint-George and Premeaux-Prissey in the Côte de Nuits subregion of Burgundy, the exquisite wines showcase the unique characteristic of the French terrior, whilst the signature of these wines is their aroma and perfume. Ripe, cleanly vinified Pinot Noir from the most esteemed sites in Burgundy yielding stunning scents, redolent of peonies, wild roses, violets, cinnamon or truffles.

Biodynamic farming principles are applied to produce the unique intensity and finesse of the Pinot Noir grapes. Natural decantation in barrel for wine clarification and bottling is done manually by gravity without pumping and filtration in order to preserve all natural elements and flavours.

At Api Jiwa, Culinary Director Matthew McCool will be curating a delectable, highly sensory 10-course culinary journey, Omakase style, that is paired with first-class wines from Domaine Prieure Roch. The handpicked selection for this special evening includes Ladoix Blanc (white) 2013, Ladoix Rouge (red) 2016, Vosne Romanee 1er Cru Les Suchots 2015, Nuits Saint Georges 1er Cru Le Clos des Corvées 2010 and Clos de Vougeot 2014.
